VOL. IX. NO. 141. CHICAGO, SATURDAY, JUNE 13, 1903. PRICE 5 CENTS

A GOOD STEEPLECHASE.

The moderating weather of yesterday was instrumental in drawing out a large crowd to Harlem, the best attendance of the week being present. There was no stake race up for solution, but the card was well made up throughout and was productive of a good day's sport.

The principal attraction was the steeple-chase handicap over the short course in which a field of twelve faced the starter, not a horse on the card dodging the issue. The race was remarkable from the fact that the entire field went over the course without a horse falling, the only mishap occurring at the fifth jump, where Somersault ran out. Crest proved to be much the best and simply played with the field. She is a grand jumper and one of the best seen here in a long time. She led from start to finish, winning easily by five lengths from Allegiance, which beat Ninos a head for second place. Allegiance ran well until just after turning for home, where he began to tire. Ceylon and Beana ran well up to the fourth jump.

The opening race, a dash of five furlongs for two-year-olds, proved to be an easy thing for Ort Wells, held as second choice in the betting. Freckman, off well in his stride, showed the way to the head of the stretch closely attended by Toltec, but when straightened out for home the latter fell away beaten. In the final eighth Meade brought up Ort Wells and he had little trouble in passing Freckman, winning going away by three lengths, the latter finishing the same distance before Frank Carr for second place.

An unwieldy field of fifteen faced the barrier in the second race, a six furlongs dash for three-year-olds and upward. The winner turned up in Bay Wonder, against whose chances as good as 6 to 1 could be had. Off in front well in his stride, he led from start to finish, winning handily by a half length from Sarah Maxim, which finished two before Best Man for second place. Sarah Maxim was crowded out of position at the start, losing ground, but made up the lost space in the final half and was running past horses fast at the end. Best Man made up much ground and ran an impressive race. Irene Mac tired when a sixteenth out after making up considerable ground from a slow beginning. Mike Strauss met with much interference. My Surprise ran out at the head of the stretch when in a contending position.

The fourth race, a dash of once around the track for three-year-olds and upward, witnessed the defeat of the favorite, Warte Nicht, supposed by the talent to be the best. Dan McKenna, showing improvement, led to the stretch, with Warte Nicht second, but here Jack Demund, which had always been lying within easy call of the winner, moved up fast and easily passed into the lead winning by two lengths from Serge, which beat Dan McKenna the same distance for second place. Serge finished with a rush. Dan McKenna was well spent when entering the final eighth. Warte Nicht ceased to be a serious contender just after turning for home. Prodigal Son showed a little early speed.

The fifth race, a dash of six and a half furlongs for three-year-olds and upward, resulted in another surprise, Wainamoinen, the even money favorite, failing to finish inside of the money. Glassfull proved to be the best, putting up an excellent performance. Uranium, displaying a sharp turn of speed, showed the way to the head of the stretch, with Wainamoinen second. When a furlong out it appeared as if Uranium would prevail, but in the closing strides Glassfull came with a rush, winning by a half length, Uranium finishing one before Ontonagon for second place. The last named ran an impressive race, making up much ground from a slow beginning and finishing resolutely. Wainamoinen faltered badly in the sharp last sixteenth struggle. Headwater rallied in the last eighth and finished going fast.

The concluding race, a dash of a mile and seventy yards for three-year-olds and upward, witnessed another defeat for the favorite. Galba was made a 2½ to 1 first choice, but second was the best he could do. Blue-mint, showing much speed, led all the way and had enough left at the finish to stall off Galba's determined challenge, winning by a nose, with Milas third, four lengths back. Galba stood a long drive through the stretch but could not quite get up. Sherry appeared to have a chance just before turning for home, but fell away beaten when well straightened out for the finish. Goldaga showed early speed.

The track was in excellent condition and fair time was made in the various races.

LOCAL TURF GOSSIP.

The M. Lewis Clark Stakes for three-year-olds at a mile and a furlong, with a gross value of $3,500, for which a fine field of eleven of the most prominent American Derby candidates is carded, will be run at Harlem today. The variety of weights in the field is due to the various allowances. If all eleven carded start, the race will be worth $2,880 net to the winner, and with two added starters he would win $3,005 net and then would incur a penalty of three pounds in the American Derby.

The probable starters and riders are as follows: Banter, 117, Crowhurst; Savable, 112, C. Gray; Early, 112, J. Winkfield; Linguist, 112, Henry; Gregor K., 109, P. Phillips; Bernays, 109, T. Knight; Gilfain, 109, J. William; Bad News, 106, Landry; Estrada Palma, 105, H. Booker; The Picket, 105, J. Reiff; Manru, 105, Helgesen.

M. H. Thichenor & Co.'s string of horses, including the American Derby candidate Flocarine, in charge of trainer H. C. Riddle, arrived Thursday from the east, and is now quartered at Washington Park. All the horses stood the trip well and appear to be in grand form. Jockey Otto Wonderly, who is under contract to ride for the stable, also got in yesterday.

It was reported that C. R. Ellison had made P. Dunne an offer of $3,000 for Glassfull which was refused.

L. N. Hodges, the owner of Ontonagon, is reported to have stood to win $40,000 had the horse finished first. He placed a sufficient sum on the horse to show to leave him a profit of $1,800.

Jockey Dominick left last night for St. Louis, where he will ride Lendin in the Derby. Jockey Coburn who will ride Au Revoir, went to the Mound City Thursday night.

The judges excused Sidney Sabbath from starting in the last race, it being reported to them that the horse was sick.

Dick Welles' debut as a three-year-old on a Chicago racetrack will be keenly watched, and as many tickets have been written on him in the Derby future books, there is much interest in his race today.

Judge Himes is a doubtful starter in the $700 handicap, and Prince of Endurance is not of Derby caliber.

Winner—B. f, by Ben Strome—Adora (trained by C. Oxx).
Went to post at 2:30. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. Ascension displayed brilliant form in the going and her race today emphasized the decided improvement in her form over any previous year. From a lucky start she quickly went to the front and easily retained her lead to the finish, being much the best today. Invasion ran a great race and for a furlong held the winner, but was crowded back on the turn, then came again in the stretch and was an easing up second. Britton, which was badly ridden and bearing out on the turn, raced prominently throughout and at the end was going fast on his own courage. The Musketeer got away poorly and ran an inexplicable race. Mud was formerly his forte and it may be that he has changed in that respect. Baikal showed up well and can do better. Damon and Osgood fell out of contention early. Scratched—39619 Operator, 116; (39328) Roue, 113; 39511 Petra II., 107; 39570 Interval, 104; Beau Gray, 103; 39538 Navasota, 102; 39619 Eva Russell, 97; 36106 Mabel Richardson, 56.

Winner—Ch. c, by Pirate of Penzance—Harebell (trained by F. McCabe).
Went to post at 2:55. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second easily. River Pirate stamped himself a wonder in the going under light weight. He was hurried along from the start and forced a phenomenal pace. In fact, no such fast running has ever been recorded, track conditions considered, and yet he sustained it throughout with such pertinacity that the favorite, when called on in the last quarter, could never get to him. Hermis, on which Rice evidently had waiting orders, trailed for six furlongs within striking distance and he was held under a choking pull for six furlongs in spite of the terrific clip, but when called on he failed to make good, although closing up a considerable gap on the winner in the final furlong. He ran with hood and blinkers for the first time in his career. Stamping Ground was lost in the first sixteenth.
Scratched—39573 Carbuncle, 110; 39450 Water Boy, 106; 39543 Daisy Green, 91; 39644 Colonsay, 91; 39356 Tugal Bey, 91; 39447 Ancke, 86.

Winner—Blk. f, by Albert—Luminous (trained by R. W. Walden).
Went to post at 3:20. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Luminosity, which was apparently outrun to the stretch turn, commenced to close at that point with such rapidity that she found herself in the lead when the field was straightened out for home. She finished out gamely and ran an extra good race. Latheron closed at the end with a tremendous rush. Greencrest raced next to the inner rail throughout and was in close quarters. Badly crowded on the turn, he put up a game race and but for excessive effort to keep the early lead might have won. Nameoki's preliminary was bad and he limped to the post and under the circumstances his race was a good one. Midshipman is steadily improving and closed up a big gap from the half and may be a good one. Vagary suffered from too strenuous early competition. Bath Beach got away badly and, after racing into a lead, collapsed completely.
Scratched—39355 Wizard, 102; 39621 Mordella, 97.
Overweights—Midshipman, 1 pound.
Luminosity, show, 4 to 1. Latheron, show, 3 to 1. Greencrest, show, 1 to 2. Nameoki, show, 1 to 3. Bath Beach, show, 1 to 5.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Chambers, Chicago. Captain J. M. Brown was killed at Garfield Park in September 1892.

In the second race at St. Louis, June 8, Lustig and Leopard were coupled in this newspaper as the Schreiber entry, not knowing that Leopard had passed from Mr. Schreiber's ownership. The Schreiber entry was backed extensively in handbooks at various places. Lustig won at 9 to 1, with Leopard favorite at 2 1/2 to 1, second. The equity of the case is this: Backers of Schreiber's entry are entitled to be paid a winning bet at the probable odds that would have been laid if the two horses had been coupled. This as near as it can be calculated would have been 8 to 5, with coupled place and show odds in proportion. This in reply to many queries about the case, no more of which will be answered.

H. J., Chicago. The parlay on Zoroaster and Montana Peeress should be paid on the latter only.

J. F. G., Chicago. Red Raven is a ch. g. by Flying Dutchman—Elizabeth H.

J. C. X., Chicago. Your query has already been answered in this newspaper.

M. B. W. Lyne is the correct spelling of his name.

L. M. K., Chicago. You are certainly entitled to payment, but if the alleged book-maker refuses to pay it is difficult to see how you can remedy the situation.

Wolff, Chicago. Otter Tail's last race was at Detroit, July 30, 1902.

Foley, Chicago. Articulate won ten straight races here last year.

Winner—B. g, by Lord Dalmeny—Faithless (trained by H. S. Newman).
Went to post at 3:00. At post 7 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same.
Bay Wonder, off flying, displayed much speed and easily stood off Sarah Maxim's determined challenge in the last hundred yards. The latter was crowded out of position at the start and lost ground, but made it up fast in the last half mile and was passing horses fast at the end. Best Man came with a rush at the end. Irene Mac began slowly, but made up ground fast in the last quarter. Mike Strauss met with much interference. My Surprise ran out at the head of the stretch when running along in a contending position.

Crest is a splendid jumper, ran to her best form and made the field look cheap, fencing clearly and winning as her rider pleased. Allegiance tired in the final eighth after showing well over the infield. He pulled up lame. Ninos came fast at the end and would have been second in a few more strides. Helen Paxton showed scant speed on the flat. Beana and Ceylon showed some early speed. Somersault ran out at the fifth jump.

Went to post at 5:15. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Eda Riley showed improvement, was well rated to the stretch and finished fast under the whip. Lunar ran a good race and was well ridden, but tired in the stretch run and should have won. Watson was probably careless and did not see Eda Riley and knew that he had Kaffir beaten. The latter showed the most early speed. Cherished ran a good race and would have been second in a few more strides. W. B. Gates ran a bad race. Baronet ran poorly for his new owner.

undoubtedly the best and is a crack colt. Colonel Bill forced the pace from the start and ran under a pull for nearly seven furlongs, appeared like a sure winner throughout and only failed in the last fifty yards. Herbert was bothered on the first turn after getting away slowly. Odom was at him early to keep up and the hot pace had a tendency to make him sulk. At the end, however, he was wearing the others down and closing strongly. Torchlight maintained a fast and steady pace throughout and was going resolutely at the finish. Injunction had no chance with his incompetent rider and requires vigorous handling. Ink is a good colt, but runs sluggishly and no small jockey can do him justice. He finished like a cyclone.

Winner—B. c, by Ben Strome—Henrietta (trained by T. E. Healy).

Went to post at 4:25. At post 2 minutes. Start bad. Won handily; second easily. Highlander appeared to sulk following the fast pace and looked fairly beaten at the half, but turning for home, he suddenly raced up next to the inner rail and unexpectedly flashed into view with a good lead a sixteenth out. Setauket got away poorly and was bumped and carried wide on the first turn, then went after the pacemaker too early and vigorously. All these things combined beat him. Locket beat the barrier and made the most of his advantage. He nearly succeeded in making a runaway race of it, but collapsed in the last furlong. Arden was always prominent and tired at the end. Silurian went a good six furlongs.

Went to post at 4:50. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Mordeella trailed the pacemakers to the stretch and finally wore them down after a lot of hard work on Bullman's part. At the end she came away with great ease. Lida Leib disputed every inch of the last quarter with the winner and ran in greatly improved form. Sir Walt came along at the finish and dropped into third place. Inquisitive Girl got away poorly, displayed a lot of early speed, but failed to stay and evidently disliked the going. She is a grand looker and will make good on a fast track. Florizel beat the gate and went a fast half.

Scratched—39482 War Times, 104; 39576 Wild Thistle, 101; 38729 Sterling Belle, 104.

Mordeella, show, out. Lida Leib, show, evens. Sir Walt, show, 8 to 5. Inquisitive Girl, show, 1 to 2.

Winner—Ch. m, by Devotee—Miss Dixon (trained by J. Hall).

Went to post at 3:05. At post 7 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second driving. Angea showed the most speed throughout and was never bothered. Anglesea ran in suddenly improved form. Horsa showed speed, but tired at the end. Goo Goo was pocketed all the way. Eufalla ran a fair race.

Angea, show, 8 to 5. Anglesea, show, 4 to 1. Horsa, show, evens. Goo Goo, show, 3 to 5.

Winner—Br. g, by Stuyvesant—Seapole (trained by W. Webb).

Went to post at 3:35. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Tom Curl was never in trouble and there was no apparent effort on the part of the others behind him to do any better than they did. Billy Ray outran Gould at the finish. Gould trailed his field until his rider got ready to make a showing. Arius quit badly.

No show betting.

Winner—B. c, by Troubadour—Brigitta (trained by R. F. Meyers).

Went to post at 4:08. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Bank Street came very fast in the homestretch, caught Honolulu tiring and came away without much effort. They were weak efforts on both Scortic and Kilmorie, but the former drew away easily in the stretch. The latter was never urged until in the last eighth, where O'Conner began to ride him. Too much use was made of Honolulu in the first part of the race and he tired badly. James F. displayed his usual early speed.

No show betting on first three.
